S.E.W. Craft Bazaar

The ladies of the S.E.W. (Such Extraordinary Women) Group – aka the Sewing Group – are in the midst of organizing a Craft Bazaar for August.

There are still a few spaces available both inside and outside. The cost of renting a space is minimal - $5.00 for the space with your own table, $10.00 for the space and a 4 ft. table, and $15.00 for the space and an 8 ft. table. We have a good variety of exhibits and would like even more. The rental proceeds will go to the Ryde Community Co-op to help with kitchen renovations. Give Carol Cook a call at 684-9931 and she will be happy to give you all the particulars.❖

History Bits

Carol Fraser has supplied some interesting photos for the Co-op website.

There is one of the Barkway Store, and she needs your help in identifying the people in it. There are some of local residents and locations.

Take a look at rydecommunityco-op.com and click on History.

Sew News

All the sweatshirt jackets are done and kept so cozy during the cool days of spring.

Once again the group is engrossed in a new project - this time we are working on the first garment of a new wardrobe. If you are interested in finding out how to get a pants pattern to give you a comfortable, good looking fit, join us for the classes. The pants classes will take us into summer. The first week, we are started on the fitting process (lots of giggles while working out how to get rid of unwanted ripples). If you wish to join us, bring a pants pattern with you along with basic sewing supplies, including a curved ruler and an old sheet to use as a muslin.

We meet at the Ryde Community Center (Ryde School) on Mondays at 11:00 till ??? For more info: Katriina at 687-0843❖
